MARTY'S BIG MOMENT

ALL the little animals in the neighborhood were discussing what they would do with the autumn leaves they were gathering. They decided that they would put all the ordinary, brown leaves in one pile to use for a bonfire. The other leaves—the very special ones, yellow, red, or orange—they would keep to decorate their rooms. Each animal could keep any special-colored leaf he picked up.

"It would be nice," said Tim Turtle "if we could have a hot dog roast over the bonfire."

"Yes," the others agreed, "but who has any money to buy hot dogs? Nobody."

So they sighed, deciding to forget about hot dogs and just have a big bonfire. So they scurried around the ground collecting the autumn leaves. One animal, Marty Mole, who was the smallest animal of all the gang, was so little that everyone else pushed him around. But he was so used to it, that he was not very surprised when Wally Weasel came up to him and said, "Give me that!"

"Give you what?"

Wally pointed to the pretty orange leaf in Marty's hand. "That leaf," he said. "Give it to me. I need it to decorate my room."

"B-but . . . b-but I picked up this leaf," Marty Mole said, trying to hide it behind him.

But Wally simply snatched it away from him. Marty sniffed, but there was nothing much he could do about it—he was too small! Then, a moment later, Marty found a beautiful yellow leaf. But just as he was putting it safely into his pocket, Glenn Gopher ran up to him and said: "Give me that leaf!"

"I found it," Marty sniffed, but Glenn simply snatched it away.

Time and time again the same thing happened. Whenever poor little Marty found a really special leaf, somebody would snatch it away. In the meantime, many ordinary brown leaves had been found and the bonfire pile was growing. Finally Marty decided it was no use picking up special leaves when someone would grab it away so he concentrated on picking up the ugliest, brownest, most ordinary leaves he could find. He felt very sad. But just as he picked up the ugliest leaf of all, he saw something strange. Under it, a small, round object glittered in the sunlight. Marty picked it up. A quarter! What luck! Marty was glad, now, that the others had stopped him from picking up pretty-colored leaves, because, after all, it was under just a plain, ordinary leaf that he'd found the quarter. He held it tightly in his paw. Then he yelled in his loudest voice, "We can have our hot dog roast!"

"What?" All the others gathered around him.

He repeated what he'd said, but this time he added, "—on one condition. I will buy hot dogs if each of you promises never to pick on me again, and never to snatch anything away from me again."

"I promise," said Glenn Gopher.

"I promise," said Tim Turtle.

"I promise," said Wally Weasel.

When everyone had finished giving his solemn promise, Marty went down the street and bought the hot dogs with his shiny new quarter. What a hot dog roast that was! The best one that had ever been held in that neighborhood! And from then on, Marty was treated as he should have been all along—like a respectable Mole!

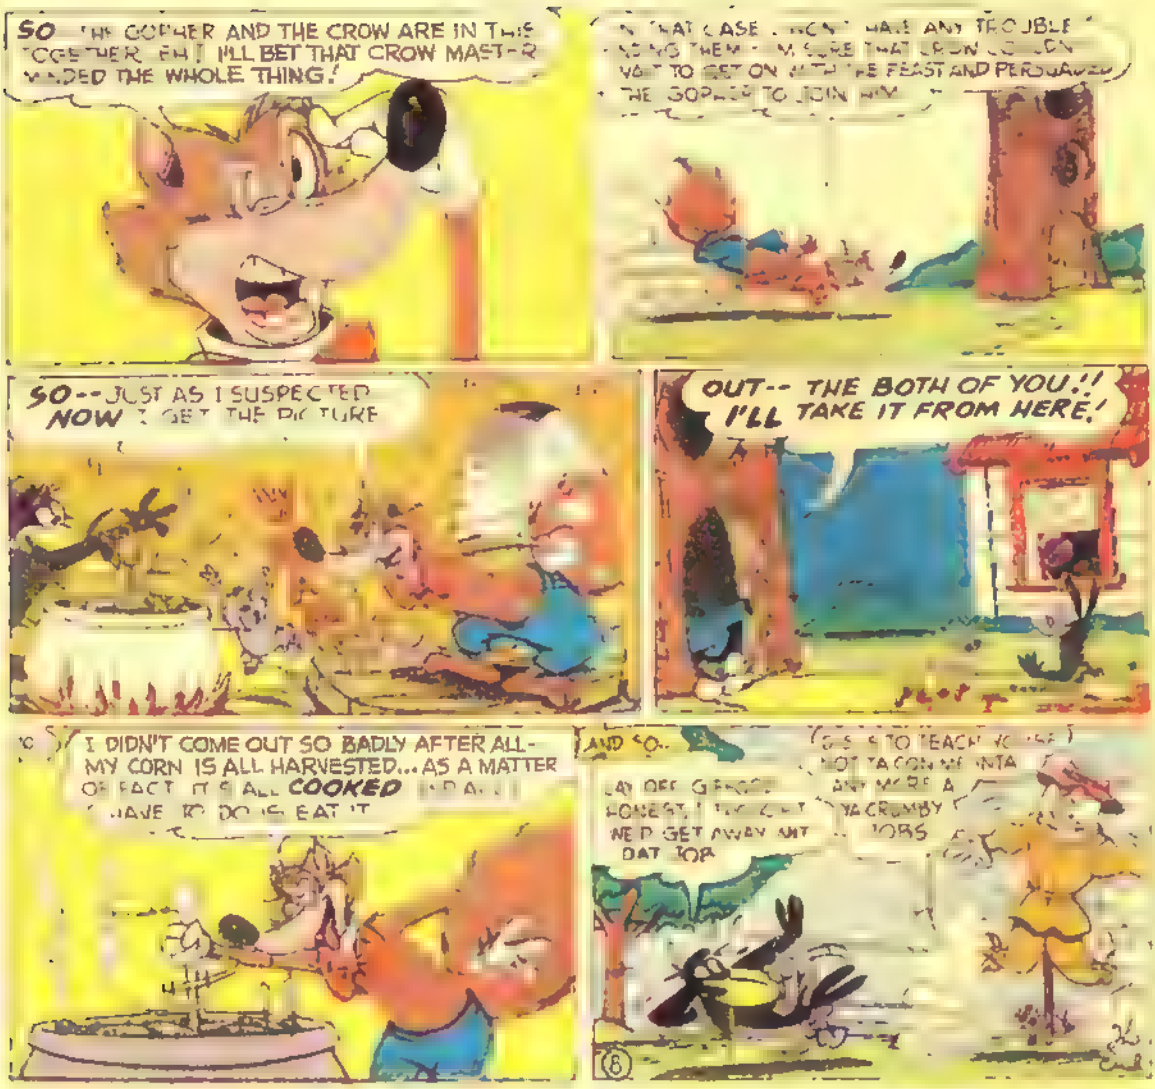
BUT WAIT!
WHAT'S THIS?
AS I LIVE AND BREATHE--A CROW FEATHER!



SO THE GOPHER AND THE CROW ARE IN THIS TOGETHER, EH? I'LL BET THAT CROW MASTER MINDED THE WHOLE THING!
IN THAT CASE, I WON'T HAVE ANY TROUBLE WITH THEM! I'M SURE THAT CROW WOULDN'T WANT TO GET ON WITH THE FEAST AND PERSUADED THE GOPHER TO JOIN HIM.
SO--JUST AS I SUSPECTED. NOW I GET THE PICTURE
OUT-- THE BOTH OF YOU!! I'LL TAKE IT FROM HERE!
I DIDN'T COME OUT SO BADLY AFTER ALL- MY CORN IS ALL HARVESTED... AS A MATTER OF FACT IT'S ALL COOKED
HAVE TO DO IS EAT IT

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

February 12, 1959

Dear Mr. Hough:

I have received the information regarding the production of the "Rocket Club" film by your company. We are happy to have such enthusiastic support in our quest to properly guide the interests of young amateur rocket aspirant.

As has been your primary interest over the years in the development of safe air rifles for the youngsters of America, so are we vitally concerned over the safety of our youth in their varied experimentations in the rocket and missile age.

It appears that, in your film, you have accomplished these aims adequately and are providing the proper guidance for the safety considerations that must be applied to this program.

May we commend you for the public-spirited sponsorship of this project and your support of the national effort to encourage increased study of the sciences.

We firmly believe that we can respond most effectively to the responsibilities enjoined by alerting qualified youth, through such programs as these, to become interested in and seriously pursue careers in science or engineering.

We expect to use "Rocket Club" widely to inform youth and parents of America of the dangers inherent in unsupervised and uncontrolled experimentation with amateur rockets and other similar explosive devices.

Sincerely,

E. B. LeBAILLY
